Pastor's Pen

Beloved, I am reminded of something that I read concerning the late Billy Graham. When asked why he was able to remain apolitical and why he was able to minister to many different people he answered, "My job is to love people, the Holy Spirit convicts and God judges. I love."

In this age of partisanship, it was so refreshing to look at a man who was uncompromised in His beliefs and yet so loving in his approach. This certainly reminded me of Jesus' mission here one earth. His mission was one of salvation not judgment. Judgment will come, but for now, salvation is preeminent!

My prayer is that as Easter approaches, we would reach out to those who so desperately need Jesus! Jesus came to save the world! Let us tell others that wonderful truth!

BLESSINGS!
PASTOR JOE
