Pastor's Pen

Beloved, the stage is set. The curtain rises. The last act of the drama begins. Here comes Jesus into the city of Jerusalem.

Perhaps 2.5 million people crowded the narrow streets converging on this holy city at Passover time. Garments were spread on the road. Branches torn from trees fanned the same air, which carried shouts of "Hosanna."

All this was no accident; Jesus knew what He was doing. In advance, He had arranged for a donkey; two disciples brought it to Him. It was no accident that marked His mode of transportation. Matthew reveals that Jesus set the stage for what we now call Holy Week so as to fulfill the prophecy spoken centuries before in Zechariah 9:9 and Isaiah 62:11. "Say to the Daughter of Zion, 'See your king comes to you gentle and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey'" (Matthew 21:5).

Call it the first century or the 21st century, the picture remains: Your King is coming!
