Pastor's Pen

Beloved, as we grow older, we mature. In our spiritual lives we should also become spiritually mature. The Bible calls it being fruitful. Spiritual fruit is the indication that we're truly connected to Christ. But there are others, as we'll see today.

Last week we examined how the relationship with Christ is described through (The Components- John 15:1-5, The Expectation: Bear Fruit- John 15:1-5 and The Means: Abide- John 15:1-5). Those things describe Christian growth in the normal Christian life.

Today let's consider how this relationship is demonstrated. When we're rightly connected to God we'll be: Prayerful (vv. 6-7), Fruitful (vv. 2, 5, 8) and Joyful (v. 11).

Blessings,

Pastor Joe
