Pastor's Pen

Beloved, on a dark spring night in Jerusalem, it seemed everyone was against Jesus Christ. The religious system had long been opposed to and jealous of His burgeoning ministry. The mock trial designed to get rid of Jesus was only going through the technical motions to achieve their end. And Peter, Jesus' closest friend, was in a downward process of disassociating himself from Him.

Peter, in fact would fall because he had not taken heed to keep himself under the grace of God. His fall however was short lived and soon he would be restored by Jesus Christ. Beloved, if you have fallen, know that you can repent and return to Christ. In the midst of the darkest night of Peter's life, the sunrise of God's grace was beginning to shine!

Beloved, we are take heed lest we fall. But if we do fall, we have Savior ready to pick us back up!
